Dear Internet Researcher:

I sincerely thank you for searching for my IT professional resume at http://billslater.com/wfs\_summary.pdf.

One of my New Year's Resolutions for 2020 is to manage my career and also to manage the people who want to help me manage my career better.

So I am being more careful about WHO I share my information with. If you sincerely want access to my IT professional resume, you can send me an e-mail to slater@billslater.com with the following information: (Be sure to put Resume Request s the e-mail Subject Line:)

=====

Your Name: _____

Your Organization: _____

The Reason you want access to my Resume: _____

The Job Opportunity Details:

Job Title: _____

Location & Zip Code: _____

Rate: of Pay: _____

Length of Engagement: _____

Reason the Position is Open (Replacement, New, etc.): _____

=====

In recent years, I am aware that MANY people have just stolen my resume and used it to help other people get jobs. This is fraud and identity theft. After noticing that my resume has been downloaded from my website 380 times in the first three days of 2020, I decided to take action. It ends today.

In addition, there is also a great deal Candidate Abuse happening. See below:
